The Wakulla Republican Party held a candidate forum at the community center on Thursday, Aug. 8. Most candidates attended and were given 5 minutes to introduce themselves and talk about why they're running – and then took some questions from the audience. Mike Watkins, chair of the local GOP, was the moderator of the event, and candidates spoke in order as listed on the ballot. Watkins reminded the audience how difficult it is for some to come forward and speak in public and commended the candidates for their willingness to serve and come forward in this manner. Three candidates did not attend the forum: sheriff's candidate Army Reyes, candidate for superintendent of schools Ricky Strickland, and Property Appraiser Ed Brimmer (who dropped out of the race the next day) Video of the event is posted on Wakulla County Republican Party's Facebook page. Each candidate is posted separately with about a 10 minute segment for each.

Mike Watkins, chair of the local party, was moderator at the forum.
