Class of '26: Perseverance

Principal Michele Falk says these graduating seniors refused to give up

By WILLIAM SNOWDEN
Editor

Wakulla High School Principal Michele Falk said the word to describe the Class of 2026 is "Perseverance."

"This senior class showed perseverance from beginning to end," said Falk. "Some students faced setbacks but refused to give up. Seeing them all reach graduation day is incredibly meaningful."

Falk added: "We are proud of the way they continued to push forward and support one another throughout the years."

And she closed with:

"Always and Forever, Go War Eagles!"

Congratulations, 2026 graduates

We are so proud of you

Graduating Seniors,

Congratulations on reaching such a prestigious milestone! For some of you, it may seem as though it was only yesterday that you began your kindergarten experience, and for others it may have felt like this day would never arrive. Regardless, along the way you have each demonstrated your ability to rise to whatever challenge lay before you and persevere through it all. Today's world can be too busy at times, and I encourage each of you to find some quiet time for reflection and remembrance of all the things that have brought you here today. Your parents, siblings, teachers, coaches, pastors, and friends, have all played a role in shaping the person you are today and for helping you write your story. But that story doesn't end here, this is only the turning of the page to a new chapter.

As you move forward into the world, embrace each new challenge with the confidence of your successful graduation from high school. Similar to experiences you've already had, you may find yourself intimidated by the unknown of adulthood, but I promise you are ready. More joys and sorrows await, but as graduates of Wakulla High School, we know you will rise to the occasion. Do not allow the critiques of your generation to hold you back from any accomplishment you may dream to achieve. The voices stating, "these kids today" do not speak for you. You must speak for yourself. Rise to the occasion and show the world that the future is brighter than ever, and you stand ready to lead our community and country to greatness.

We are all so proud of you.

We love you!  #butlermoorelegacy  - Mom, Caleb & Briyaun
